DATA PROTECTION ACT 1998 – Norfolk Quilters

Clubs and Societies are exempt from the requirement to register under the above act as long as the only information that they hold about living persons concerns their own members and those members have no objections to their details being held on machine/electronic processable data/media.

Any personal details provided will be held on computer by the current Membership Secretary.
The information we would hold on the computer will be confined to name, address, e-mail (where notified) and telephone number/s. This information will be used for the distribution of letters or to notify members by telephone.

In addition they may be shared with members of the Norfolk Quilters Committee for the purposes of distribution of the Newsletter, organising social activities and other events run by the committee.
Under no circumstances will they be shared with any commercial enterprise.

You are not obliged to give any information you do not wish to be held on record. Please bear this in mind when you complete the Norfolk Quilters membership application form.

I agree/disagree to this information being held.
